SOLDIERS ARE GOING HOME

Three More Regiments Will Leave Springfield.

NEGROES GREATLY ALARMED

Fear That Remaining Force of Troops Is Not Sufficient to Restrain the Lawless Element in the Illinois City. Seek Refuge in the Arsenal.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—Only two regiments of state troops will be retained in Springfield hereafter. At a conference in the governor's office it was decided to release the Second Infantry from riot duty, in addition to the Third and Fifth regiments, whose departure has been scheduled to follow the release of the First and Fourth regiments. The troops that will remain on guard here will be the Seventh Infantry and eight troops of the First cavalry.

The conference was between General E. C. Young and Governor Deen. The former pointed out that with conditions in their present satisfactory state the expense of keeping the large body of troops here is useless and asserted that one regiment of infantry and one of cavalry could take care of any riotous demonstrations that may arise.

Plans were completed for the delivery to the civil authorities of Joseph B. Klein, the Chicago private of Company A, First infantry, who stabbed Earl Nelson with a bayonet at Kankakee while the regiment was en route to Springfield. The surrender of Klein will be made according to military regulations in such instances, Company L of the Third Infantry being detailed as an escort for the prisoner.

Every effort will be made to see that Klein is not subjected to any indignity at Kankakee. Captain Harry B. Chambers of General Young's staff has been ordered to accompany the party to Kankakee as a representative of the national guard, and Judge D. G. Thompson will represent the attorney general's department. Klein will be escorted to the jail by soldiers and there formally turned over to the local civil authorities. As soon as this has been accomplished Judge Thompson will move for Klein's release on bail. Colonel Sanborn of the First regiment having begun arrangements for this step on his arrival in Chicago.

Presumed to Be Innocent.

It is the determination of the authorities here that Klein shall be treated only as a member of the state forces who has been accused of a crime of which he is presumed to be innocent.

General Wells, who has been in command of the East section of the city, has been relieved of duty and General Young has assumed charge of that section. General Foster will retain command of the West section, with headquarters at the armory.

Fear and terror prevail in the homes of Springfield negroes. The departure of two regiments of infantry Wednesday and the announcement that two more organizations will be sent home caused consternation among the colored residents.

"The mob will be here sure if those soldiers go away," they said, and delegations were hastily organized and sent to the state, county and city officials to protest against a relaxation of the military regime. The efforts of the authorities to quiet this feeling were only partially successful and in many a humble home there was no sleep before dawn.

Every footfall or challenge of a sentry sent quivers of alarm among the anxious watchers.

Scores of the terror-stricken blacks sought refuge in the arsenal. Early in the evening almost twice as many applications for shelter had been received there as on previous nights and about 300 negroes curled up in the corners of the balcony sleeping on the floor or curled up in chairs.

The exodus of negroes, which had begun to abate, was renewed. Trains and trolley cars were used by those fortunate enough to possess a little money, but many of the unfortunates took to the road, tramping across the country in a drizzling rain until exhaustion forced them to seek rest in corn fields or in wood lots. The children and aged who were driven to the open, suffered severely and it is feared that many of them will succumb to the hardships.

Adjutant General Scott insists that there is no good ground for the fear of the negroes.

Tailors Will Strike.

New York, Aug. 20.—A general strike of the members of the United States Brotherhood of Tailors was ordered at a meeting of the general executive board of the brotherhood here

HAYES RETURNS HOME.

New York, Aug. 20.—"I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated us," said John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race at the Olympic games, upon his arrival here on the steamer Oceanic. Hayes' view of the treatment given the American team of athletes at the games in London was echoed by J. P. Halstead, the Cornell runner, who was also a passenger on the Oceanic. That there were grounds for complaint by Americans was admitted by both athletes, but neither believed that the team from this country was intentionally discriminated against by anybody connected with the conduct of the sports in the Stadium.

Hayes got a reception at the pier from a party of friends who had assembled to greet him. He was asked at once about the Marathon and in discussing the race he said:

"They thought before the race that the Englishmen were the only ones that had a chance and they naturally were a great deal disappointed when they did not win. Morrissey was the only American who was mentioned before the race as having any show at all. I don't know anything about the assisting of Dorando across the line. He was disqualified on the testimony of the judges. I, myself, did not have to make any protest."

VIEWS OF CASTRO.

Frankly Expressed by the President of Venezuela.

Caracas, Aug. 20.—"To create diplomatic agents for the purpose of humbling weak nations, is anomalous and counteractive," is President Castro's frank opinion of diplomatic relations as recently expressed in an interview. He surely has been consistent in waging a war on those who he thought were trying to humble him. Holland is the fourth power, which, during the past few years, has severed all friendly relations with Venezuela.

The American government has now gone even one step farther in completely suppressing the consular agency at Caracas, a very unexpected action, inasmuch as Caracas business houses have been greatly inconvenienced by being obliged now to dispatch their hides, coffee and cocoa through the consulate at La Guayra. Thus the capital of Venezuela, where there ought to be a consul general, is today entirely without consular representation. John Brewer, late consular agent, remains here as guardian of the archives of the closed legation. Alarmists take it for granted that this latest move from Washington is only one more indication of the coming of a more serious rupture.

AUTO HIT BY A TRAIN.

Wealthy Minneapolis Brewer and His Wife Killed.

Minneapolis, Aug. 20.—John Gluek, a wealthy Minneapolis brewer, and his wife were instantly killed at Cottage-wood, Lake Minnetonka, in a collision between their automobile and a train on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway. Mr. Gluek and his party were en route to the city and at the railroad crossing near Cottage-wood their automobile was caught on the track by the train and hurled against a small station at one side. Mr. Gluek was instantly killed and Mrs. Gluek was pinned down under the debris, which speedily took fire from the ignited gasoline from the automobile. She was dead when taken out. Mrs. Edward le Baire of New York city, sister of Mrs. Gluek, and her two-year-old daughter received serious injuries, which may prove fatal.

Two Girls Kidnapped.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 20.—Called to the door by an unknown man just before midnight, Gertrude Biehn, aged fourteen, and Dorothy Biehn, aged eleven, daughters of Jacob Biehn, one of the wealthiest farmers in Kenosha county, were forced into a closed carriage and kidnapped. No trace of them can be found and relatives of the girls can discover no motive for the kidnapping.

Editors Visit Minnesota Capitol.

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—Minnesota's marble state house was ablaze with electric lights in the evening, the occasion being the state reception to the National Editorial association. From 8:30 till 10:30 a continual throng of people kept going and coming. Governor Johnson and wife and other state officials and their wives welcomed the editors.

VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY

Causes Demonstration in Courtroom at Flushing, L. I.

HAINS CHARGED WITH MURDER

Army Officer Accused of Having Killed William E. Annis and His Literary Brother Is Held for Aiding and Abetting Him in the Crime.

New York, Aug. 20.—After being out twenty-two minutes, a coroner's jury brought in a verdict that William E. Annis, who was killed last Saturday at Bayside, L. I., came to his death as the result of pistol shot wounds inflicted by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., aided and abetted by Thornton Jenkins Hains, his literary brother.

There was a greater crowd than the little courtroom in the town hall at Flushing, L. I., could hold when the inquest began and hundreds of men and women awaited the verdict outside.

When the jurymen filed into the room and the foreman announced the verdict there was a demonstration. Conner Ambler had to rap with his gavel and court officers had to caution the spectators for an attempt was made to applaud the verdict. Major John Powell Hains, who has come here from Chicago to stand by his brothers, and who was sitting beside Captain Hains, gripped his brother by the arm and whispered words of encouragement, assuring him that the inquest would have little bearing on the case.

Crowd Questioned T. J. Hains.

In the excitement a crowd gathered around Thornton Jenkins Hains and began to question him as to the tragedy in which he played such an important part. He was asked if he felt justified in holding a crowd at bay with a revolver while his brother shot down Annis. Before Hains could reply, John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the brothers, rushed to his side and shouted: "No, no, don't answer that question." In his effort to prevent Hains from answering, the lawyer clapped his hands over his client's mouth and was probably just in time to prevent the prisoner from committing himself.

Only two witnesses were called

KERN IN MILWAUKEE.

Democratic Candidate Delivers an Address at a Picnic.

Milwaukee, Aug. 20.—John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for vice president, accompanied by an Indianapolis delegation and Mayor Rose of this city, who met the party in Chicago, arrived in Milwaukee and was welcomed at the railway station by a number of prominent Democrats and a gathering of people who were anxious to see the vice presidential nominee. The occasion for Mr. Kern's visit was the picnic given at Wonderland park, under the auspices of the Associated Rose Clubs of Milwaukee, and where he delivered an address. The picnic was attended by thousands of Democrats from Milwaukee county and by visitors from the state at large.

Leaving the station Mr. Kern was driven to the Plankinton hotel, thence to the park, where addresses were made by A. J. Aylward and A. J. Schmidt, gubernatorial candidates for the nomination in the Democratic primaries.

Brainerd, Minn., August 18th, 1908.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

To those interested I will say that I have been a student at the Brainerd Business College since it opened. Started in its Business Department. We were a highly interested lot of students while going thru this most pleasing course of study. It is difficult to see how it could be made better. I learned more about penmanship in a month than I had before in my life. The Brainerd Business College is all right.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It gives me pleasure to state that my ward, Miss Maude Mandry, has been attending the Brainerd Business college for some months and I am more than pleased with her progress. She likes the school; she likes her studies and her teachers. We are very glad of this opportunity to prepare our ward right here at home, for earning her own living. The Brainerd College has our complete and unqualified approval.

THE POLITICAL POT

The political pot has commenced to simmer and while it is not expected to get to the boiling point for some time it will finally reach that stage even if the indications now are for a moderate campaign. Candidates who are to contest for nomination at the primary election are getting busy and several have already filed. Those who contemplate getting into the game will have to do so soon as August 26th is the last day that filings can be made for the primary election, and no names will be added to the ticket after that date. The law provides that the filings for the primaries shall be made 20 days before the primary election, the date of which is Tuesday, September 15th.

The cost of filing, according to the law governing that point, has been amended, and according to the attorney general the apparent meaning of the amended law is that candidates should pay $10 instead of $20. According to the decision office seekers must pay $10 each for filing for the primary which sum will also entitle the winners to have their names placed on the ballot for the general election without additional expense. Legislative candidates however will have to pay $20 as a filing fee.

The legislative candidates in this district now number five and all are from Morrison county, and it is expected that the contest for two house positions will be confined entirely to Morrison county gentlemen. I. W. Bouck and Milo N. Young, the present members of the legislature, are candidates before the people for renomination, the latter gentleman having served one term and the former three. The contest to displace the present members is a friendly one and it has not been charged that their records are unsatisfactory, but with the advent of the three other candidates, E. A. Kling, C. W. Bouck and L. D. Brown, the outcome is uncertain and the lines have not yet been so closely drawn as to allow of picking the winners with any degree of certainty.

There will be no contest in the district for member of congress and the name of C. A. Lindbergh, the present congressman, will be the only one on the primary ballot for the republican nomination, and from present indications there will be no democratic candidate pitted against him at the election. This eliminates a strenuous feature from the campaign, for in years gone by the district has looked forward to a struggle for the republican nomination for this office and there never has been a time when the successful candidate did not have to fight for the election. The condition of affairs in this respect must be a source of satisfaction to Congressman Lindbergh who is just completing his first term as the representative in congress of one of the most prominent congressional districts in the northwest and one that has heretofore been the scene of the hardest fought battles for political supremacy of any in the state.

It is generally conceded that there will be no contests at the primary election on county offices for the nomination of auditor, treasurer, register of deeds and judge of probate. Auditor Smart is just completing his first term and he has given the office his closest personal attention which together with the general satisfaction that exists in regard to the conduct of probably the most important office in the county seems to have eliminated the desire that may have existed in the minds of any of those who may have looked with longing eyes on the position. Treasurer Adair, Judge Sanborn and Register Trommald will have no opposition at the primaries, and undoubtedly none at the general election. The people seem to feel, if the general sentiment expressed is any criterion, that a good official is worth keeping, and while a life tenure is not expected it is the best policy to retain a worthy public official and it can be said in this connection without fear of contradiction that it would be hard to replace them with better men for the positions. The office of clerk of the court is not elective this year, it being a four year office and W. A. M. Johnston was elected two years ago.

For county attorney there will be a three cornered fight for the nomination, W. A. Fleming, W. W. Bane and J. H. Warner, the present incumbent, will come before the people asking their endorsement.

Superintendent J. A. Wilson, who has had charge of the schools in this county for several years, will have opposition at the primaries in the person of A. J. Kneiff, of Bay Lake.

James A. Sornson, of Merrifield, is a candidate for the republican nomination of sheriff, and it is understood, although not authoritatively, that F. J. Reid, of St. Mathias, will contest the honors with him. Mr. Reid is at present one of the county commissioners and in case he makes up his mind to make the contest it will add additional life to the political scrap to be waged. Other gentlemen have been mentioned in this connection including the former superintendent of the county farm, Geo. S. McCulloch, but so far Mr. Sornson has been the only one to file. Ole Erickson, who has been sheriff of the county for some time, will again come up for election but he will not have to be figured with at the primary election, and whoever gets the republican nomination this year will have an advantage not offered in off years to land the place.

The gentlemen who have filed with the auditor up to date are:

County Attorney, republican—W. W. Bane, W. A. Fleming, J. H. Warner.

County Superintendent, republican—J. A. Wilson, Arthur J. Kneiff.

Sheriff, republican—James A. Sornson.

County Commissioner, First District, republican—P. J. Albertson; democratic—Frank Kienow.

County Commissioner, Fifth District, republican—G. F. Edquist.

SOMETHING DOING
AT THE FALLS

Steel Interests Said to Have Acquired International Falls
Water Power

WORK WILL COMMENCE SOON

Paper and Pulp Mill on American
Side---Huge Flouring Mills
Opposite

The Minneapolis Tribune contains the following regarding the waterpower at International Falls:

"The Backus-Brooks interests at International Falls have sold their water power holdings at 'the fall' to Eastern capital, and it is understood that the development hereafter will be by capital furnished by the steel interests.

"W. H. Cook, president of the Duluth, Rainy Lake and Winnipeg road, has sent word to the Minneapolis lumber interests to the effect that work would begin at once by the use of 600 men, looking to the completion of works that would produce 30,000-horsepower within a year. This, it is understood, will be followed by the quick completion of some new railroad lines in that district.

"It is understood by those who have followed matters in that locality that the Backus-Brooks company will concentrate its efforts upon the completion of a mammoth paper and pulp plant on the American side at International Falls. Pulp wood is plenty in that locality and the mill is to be finished by the time the power is ready to be delivered. The plant will have a capacity of 500 tons of paper a day.

"The advices also claim that to offset the huge paper mill on this side the Ogilvie Milling company, of Winnipeg, is to build a flour mill with a capacity of 20,000 barrels a day at Fort Frances on the Canadian side of Rainy river.
Elevators will be built and wheat ground in transit. All these developments are some of the things that led the Minneapolis real estate board to take its trip to the Rainy lake country in order to investigate the situation

Five Strong Reasons

Why painting in the fall is best

1. In the fall, the surface is thoroughly dry. During the spring a surface which needs repainting is sure to contain moisture and dampness or frost, and it cannot be successfully painted until it has thoroughly dried out.
2. When the wood is dry, it absorbs more of the paint; the paint penetrates deeper into the wood, therefore gets a firmer hold on it, giving the paint coating greater tenacity for holding qualities.
3. Paint cannot be as successfully applied in damp, cloudy or unsettled weather as in warm, sunny weather. In the fall the weather is more settled and uniform and is warmer, therefore it is an excellent time for painting.
4. A house needs its protective coat of paint more in the winter months than at any other time. A house in need of painting should never be allowed to go over the winter without this protection.
5. It is easier to keep the winter's moisture and dampness out by applying a coat of paint in the fall, when the surface is dry, than it is to get moisture or dampness out of the wood if you want to apply a coat of paint in the spring.

Fire at Henry Atkinson's Place on East Main Street Discovered
Just in Time

A fire which might easily have consumed the residence of Henry Atkinson, at 1011 Main street, was discovered by the neighbors just in time to save the building. The children in the Shay family, living in the house next east of Atkinson, came to the residence of I. U. White, who lives in the next house west, about 7 o'clock last night, and reported smoke coming up through the roof. An alarm was immediately turned in to the fire department and I.
U. and Dean White grabbed pails of water and an ax and rushed over to the Atkinson house.

No one was at home when they reached there and the house was unlocked. It was full of smoke and hard to locate the fire. A search in the rooms both on the ground floor and in the chamber revealed none. Dean, however, discovered the smoke coming up through the stairs and chopped into the partition at the side of the stairway and found fire. He called to his father to look for a closet under the stairs. I. U. found one. The door was closed and on the floor in front of it was a large lamp which had apparently fallen off from a stand. Mr.
White stooped and picked up the lamp and the chimney, which lay beside it,
and found both of them perfectly cold.
He opened the closet door and found the walls afire. The flames had apparently originated in a little waste paper which lay on the floor. Mr. White dashed a couple of pails of water on the fire and extinguished it just as the fire department dashed up.

There was $300 insurance on the property in the Smith Bros. agency.

Kipp Mining Company Has Been Organized to Work Deposits
in Todd County

That interest and belief in the Cuyuna range is constantly increasing and broadening is shown by the incorporation of two new corporations recently organized for the purpose of developing iron ore deposits and mining it.

One of the companies organized is the Cuyuna Mining Company, of Ait-kin, of which W. E. Dean, Jr., of Ait-kin, and H. S. Raymer, R. A. Moses, E. D. Dickey, Geo. H. Boysen and P.
W. Tourtelot, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, are members and S. K. Stevenson, Iowa City, Iowa. The capital stock is $100,- 000 and the business as set forth in the articles of incorporation, is the "mining, smelting, reducing, refining and working of iron ores, copper and other manufacturing of iron, steel, copper and other metals and minerals, and the exploring, drilling, buying, selling, leasing, holding, owning, mortgaging or otherwise encumbering and dealing in lands, tenements, and real and personal property of every other nature or descriptions."

The other is the Kipp Mining company, and is organized to develop ore finds in Todd county as set forth by the following sent from Staples to the Duluth Herald:

"Considerable excitement prevails in the country directly southeast of Staples, on account of the large bodies of iron ore which have been discovered.
From good authority it is believed that a great quantity of ore exists throughout that section of Todd county, and a company has been incorporated, known as the Kipp Mining company, and will soon be on the ground for operation.

"Besides purchasing several tracts of land, and options on a great deal more, they have purchased the old mill site on the Long Prairie river, which will be utilized for furnishing power and light for the mines."

ciples of the party, is unchanged, yet
I can hardly see how I can get away

tion and wish it never had happened."

FLEET AT SYDNEY.

American Warships Arrive at New South Wales Port.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 20.—A thin veil of smoke on the horizon signalled to the watchers on the coast the approach of the American warships and official notification was sent out that the fleet had been sighted. It was yet twenty miles outside of Sydney harbor, but this word, which had been awaited eagerly by tens of thousands, stirred Australians like a call to arms and almost instantly those who had not left the city to take up points of vantage along the bay shore moved in droves to line the quays, roof tops and other places on the harbor front, to watch the coming of the guardships from the new world. The day broke bright and clear and so intense was the interest in the American ships of war that half the populace remained awake the entire night and thousands upon thousands of them long before the night was over were on their way to the hill to pass outside the city limits, where they congregated seemingly in unbroken lines along the coast from Bondi beach to Manley.

It is estimated that hardly less than 500,000 people assembled to give the visitors a royal welcome. Sydney harbor with its innumerable bays and coves, never looked more beautiful, nor did the American sailors ever witness a more inspiring sight than that which met their eyes as the white ships came through the channel, past the great headlands into Port Jackson.

A hundred thousand people, the greatest assemblage of all gathered on the South heads, where a magnificent view of the whole scene was to be had. Hundreds of craft of all kinds moved up and down even at the early hour, all the waters with the exception of the fairway and anchorages being dotted with little and big vessels decorated in every conceivable manner with flags and bunting.

What Makes a Woman Look Old? WRINKLES! The Arch Enemies of Beauty

When wrinkles come—animation, expression and beauty go. We say:
"How old and wrinkled she looks!"

A woman may have a wealth of luxuriant hair, a complexion like a lily and the profile of a Grecian goddess and yet be made conspicuously unattractive by the blight of beauty—wrinkles.

Beauty is in the animation of the features; the bright expression of penetration in the eyes; the clear-cut lines of the "inviting" mouth—and in that indefinable "something" that bids for the envy of women and the admiration of men.

Wouldn't She Be Beautiful If It Wasn't for the Wrinkles?

The above likeness is from a photo, taken last October, of a well-known Chicago lady, who resides at Hotel Wychmere, Eighteenth and Indiana Av., that city. Since then she has taken a course treatment and is now

One of the Most Beautiful Women in Chicago

If you will call at

H. P. DUNN,

where these goods are on sale, you will receive a booklet, entitled

"HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL"

Showing, on the front cover, a likeness of this superb beauty. Inside the booklet you will find her name and a signed, personal letter in praise of the Burnham treatment. By description and diagram, the booklet clearly shows how this wonderful change was accomplished.

Wrinkles Can Be Entirely Eradicated

E. Burnham's Skin Tightener
Begins the removal of wrinkles by giving the skin new tone and vigor, causing it to contract—the sagging eyelids gradually resume their youthful condition—the furrows on the brow disappear and the hard lines around the mouth grow dim and vanish.

E. Burnham's Skin Food
Completes the removal of wrinkles by strengthening and building up the wasted tissues—stimulates the circulation of red blood through every capillary—rounds out the sunken temples and hollow cheeks—makes permanent the good effects of massage.

E. Burnham's Cucumber Cream
Should be used with this treatment to make the skin clean and elastic, so that the other two preparations can more effectively do their work. The Cream penetrates and dissolves the greasy impurities that have clogged the pores. This allows the Skin Food to pass through them and ACT ON THE TISSUES BENEATH.

JOHNSON BY ACCLAMATION

Democrats Renominate Him for Governor of Minnesota.

NO OTHER NAME PRESENTED

Demonstration Lasting Over an Hour Occurs When Mayor Lawler of St. Paul Places the Governor's Name Before the Convention in Minneapolis.

As a committee to name a slate the following delegates were selected:
Albert Schaller, R. T. O'Connor, John Costello, L. A. Stockwell, C. F. Kelly, C. O. Daly, J. J. Daly, J. E. Casey, D. H. Evans, H. G. Day, John Dwan, L. B. Nelson, C. H. Hart, O. J. Johnson, F. A. Day, P. O. Hair, Julius Dorsey and A. G. Rutledge.

Never in the history of Minnesota has anyone received an ovation equaling that tendered Governor Johnson by the Democratic state convention.

Following the presentation of his name for selection as the party's standard bearer in the state campaign by Mayor Lawler of St. Paul, the delegates marched around the hall cheering and shouting for more than an hour. The record-breaking demonstration showed very clearly that the Democrats of the state will have no other candidate for governor. Mayor Lawler, in his nominating speech, was at his best, and his eloquent praise of the governor was interrupted time and again with wild outbursts of cheering. When he said that the Democrats of the state would have no other candidate, the mighty demonstration started, and for an hour and five minutes the cheering was continuous.

No Other Name Presented.

No other name was considered by the convention.

When the demonstration had been in progress for an hour and five minutes, Frank A. Day telephoned Governor Johnson at the state capitol, and informed him of what the convention was doing. At that time the delegates were still marching around the hall behind a huge banner on which was a picture of Johnson, and the cheering was vociferous. The governor, replying to his secretary, said he was deeply touched by the tribute of affection to him, but added that his determination to keep out of the race was unshaken.

His refusal to accept the nomination had no effect on the convention, however.

The governor would not give out for publication what he would do in the matter, but the fact that he wanted to "think it over" in the face of his previous declarations that he would not accept the nomination indicates that his attitude has changed somewhat and the general opinion is that he will respond to the call made upon him by the party.

His private secretary, Frank A. Day, came out boldly and says he does not see how Johnson could continue to live in the state if he turned down the nomination.

The convention was called to order by State Chairman Frank A. Day. After the delegates had listened to a phonographic speech of William J. Bryan State Chairman Day began his opening address. He said if the wish of Governor Johnson was respected that there were a dozen Democrats in Minnesota who could carry the party to victory.

At the conclusion of Mr. Day's remarks State Senator Ray G. Farrington of Ortonville was made temporary chairman. In his keynote speech he said that the Republican national house and senate at all times afforded unequal rights and privileges to a few and that the reason for the popularity of Roosevelt is because he has seized upon Democratic principles. He said that the Jacobson platform was like that of Taft, in that it stood upon a foundation of sand, and the only clear thing in it was the placing of the responsibility of an extravagant Republican legislature upon a Democratic governor. The convention then took a recess for ten minutes to select committees on credentials and permanent organization.

Committee Named to Fill Ticket.

Later it was decided to have a committee formed of one delegate from each judicial district to make recommendations for filling the places on the ticket other than governor. That this could be done a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

The demonstration for Johnson was brought about when the convention voted to receive nominations for governor by roll call of the county. R. T. O'Connor had seen which way the wind was blowing and had fixed things so that Ramsey county could get the glory of starting the band wagon move for Johnson. Things had been framed up to give Hennepin county this honor and A. B. Choate was to make the nominating speech, but when the roll call of the counties was started, Altkin, first on the list, announced through its chairman, that it had no candidate to offer but would defer to Ramsey county.

A buzz of excitement went around the hall, followed by tense suspense as Mayor D. W. Lawler of St. Paul arose from his place in the Ramsey delegation and ascended the steps to the stage. The moment was fraught with the keenest expectation. It was the crisis of the convention.

A nervous thrill ran through the vast hall as Mayor Lawler faced the delegates and in a deep, sonorous voice that reached every part of the hall and filled the auditorium with its volume of tone, said:

Lawler Started Demonstration.

"He would be a hard speaker, indeed, who would waste much time in placing before this convention the name of the next governor of Minnesota because there is but one name in the minds, in the hearts and in the mouths of the Democracy of the state of Minnesota, and that name is John A. Johnson."

That was as far as Mayor Lawler got with his nomination speech for more than an hour.

P. McDonnell of Duluth, chairman of the St. Louis county delegation, led, at that psychological moment, one of the wildest band wagon movements ever witnessed in a state convention in the Northwest. Jumping to his feet he grabbed the banner of St. Louis county and waving it above his head he shouted:

"Hurrah for Johnson! He's a winner!" and started on a run for the stage. He was followed by every delegate in the hall, shouting: "Johnson! Johnson! He's a winner!"

For more than an hour pandemonium reigned and when quiet had been again restored, with practically every delegate too hoarse to talk much, Mayor Lawler resumed his speech in nomination of Governor Johnson. He made it short.

"There is no name worthy to be mentioned alongside that of Bryan," Mr. Lawler continued, "except that of Johnson. We are here today representing the militant Democracy in Minnesota. Let every Democrat in Minnesota nail to the masthead the name of John A. Johnson, demand his acceptance of the nomination and triumphantly elect him this fall along with the entire Democratic ticket."

The roll call of the counties was then resumed and Anoka county deferred to Hennepin. A. B. Choate, was then called to the platform and delivered as a Johnson seconding speech, part of the address he had prepared for the nomination of Johnson.

Should Not Be Discouraged.

In conclusion he advised the Democrats not to be discouraged with Johnson and Bryan as their standard-bearers this fall.

The roll call had proceeded as far as Becker county, when the expected happened, and to J. T. Tompkins of Fairfax, a ditching contractor of that village, befell the honor of actually nominating Governor Johnson for a third term campaign.

Arising in his place in the Renville county delegation, as the roll of the counties was starting again, Mr. Tompkins said:

"What's the use of wasting all this time calling the roll of counties? We know who we want. If it can be done, let's nominate Johnson now, by acclamation."

That's all there was to it. Mr. Tompkins was prevailed upon by Chairman Farrington to offer the suggestion in the form of a motion, and it was carried with a shout.

Chairman Day of the committee on nominations reported the slate candidates for minor places as given above and it was ratified without question. The convention was rapped to order at 2:30 for the afternoon session, and immediately upon quiet having been secured Ramsey county moved that Judge J. T. Corrigan of Minneapolis be called on to address the convention. Judge Corrigan acceded to the request and delivered a brief address eulogistic of Bryan and Johnson.

W. R. Hodges of Sleepy Eye reported for the credentials committee, seating all delegates as reported by the counties, there being no contests.

Chairman Austin of the committee on organization reported, recommending that the temporary organization be made permanent, and the report was approved.

While the convention was waiting for the committee on resolutions May or D. W. Lawler of St. Paul was called for from every section of the hall, and spoke briefly from the floor in his place with the Ramsey delegation.

The convention adopted the platform prepared by the resolutions committee and then adjourned. The platform is as follows:

The Democracy of Minnesota, in convention assembled, improves this first opportunity since the national convention to approve the work of that body, indorse the platform there adopted, and pledge its hearty support to the ticket there nominated. In W. J. Bryan the world today recognizes one of the truest patriots and ablest statesmen of modern times, and no where are his qualities more highly appreciated by the people than in Minnesota. We believe that the election of Bryan and Kern would bring the government of this republic close to its true and original source—the people.

We hereby indorse the administration of Governor John A. Johnson. In every emergency he has been equal to the occasion, and has brought honor to the administration and to the state. His administration had but one guide the law, and all interests have been compelled to respect it.

Johnson's Administration Indorsed.

We indorse the wisdom of Governor Johnson and the state board appointed by him in inaugurating at the state prison a plan for the manufacture of harvesting machinery and in largely extending the capacity and facilities of the binding twine plant already established. We congratulate the farmers of Minnesota that the state is prepared to produce next season 4,000,000 pounds over and above the 14,000,000 pounds of binding twine manufactured this year, and that mowers and harvesters made by the state are in successful operation; and we pledge our continued efforts along this line until the agricultural producers of Minnesota are permanently free from the grasp of the harvester and binding twine trusts. In this connection we call attention to the ominous silence of the Republican platform on this important question.

We would call the attention of the voters of this state to the fact that there will be pending before them at the next election an amendment to the constitution dealing with the subject of taxation; that this amendment will open the way for the passage of a tonnage tax on iron ore, and that the steel trust is at this time trying to have declared invalid a similar amendment voted upon and carried at the last election. We recommend the adoption of such amendment, to the end that these interests may be required to bear their just share of public burdens.

Recognizing the initiative and referendum as a most efficient means by which the citizenship of this state may beneficently control legislation and strengthen and perpetuate democratic government, we pledge the Democratic administration of Minnesota and the Democratic members of the senate and house of representatives to the support of the measure before the last legislature known as Senate File No. 78, the Fitzpatrick bill, or of some measure equally as effective, and we appeal to all citizens of Minnesota, regardless of party to see that this most important measure be enacted into law at the coming session.

Election of Senator by Popular Vote.

We demand that our state executive and our state legislature as well as the United States senators and representatives from Minnesota use their utmost endeavors to bring about a change in the Constitution of the United States, securing the election of the United States senators directly by the voters at large in each state. Until that amendment can be secured, we demand such a modification of the primary laws of the state of Minnesota as will give the voters of Minnesota an opportunity to express, by their votes, a preference as to the man who shall represent the state of Minnesota in the United States senate.

Believing as we do in the principle of the direct primary, we demand that the direct primary law of the state be strengthened and extended so as to include nominations for all state offices.

We congratulate the people of the state that the demand of the Democratic party made two years ago for lower freight and passenger rates and the abolition of free passes has been recognized by the enactment of laws designed to secure those ends.

We commend the present administration for its efforts to enforce those laws and pledge a continuance of those efforts until full compliance therewith has been secured.

We reiterate our demand that the rules of the common law exempting the employer from liability to his employee for accidental injuries sustained through the negligence of fellow servants and also the common law doctrine as to the assumption of risk by the employees be abolished.

Believing the position taken by some of our bankers that the people collectively, under county and state government, are entitled to security for their bank deposits, but that the individual, whose need for security is far greater, is not so entitled is inconsistent and absurd; therefore, resolved, that we favor the state guarantee for deposits in state banks.

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought can be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Pure, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures and purifies the blood, thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist doesn't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by enclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

SOLDIERS ARE GOING HOME

Three More Regiments Will Leave Springfield.

NEGROES GREATLY ALARMED

Fear That Remaining Force of Troops Is Not Sufficient to Restrain the Lawless Element in the Illinois City. Seek Refuge in the Arsenal.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—Only two regiments of state troops will be retained in Springfield hereafter. At a conference in the governor's office it was decided to release the Second Infantry from riot duty, in addition to the Third and Fifth regiments, whose departure has been scheduled to follow the release of the First and Fourth regiments. The troops that will remain on guard here will be the Seventh Infantry and eight troops of the First Cavalry.

The conference was between General E. C. Young and Governor Deenen. The former pointed out that with conditions in their present satisfactory state the expense of keeping the large body of troops here is useless and asserted that one regiment of infantry and one of cavalry could take care of any riotous demonstrations that may arise.

Plans were completed for the delivery to the civil authorities of Joseph B. Klein, the Chicago private of Company A, First Infantry, who stabbed Earl Nelson with a bayonet at Kankakee while the regiment was en route to Springfield. The surrender of Klein will be made according to military regulations in such instances, Company I of the Third Infantry being detailed as an escort for the prisoner.

Every effort will be made to see that Klein is not subjected to any indignity at Kankakee. Captain Harry B. Chambers of General Young's staff has been ordered to accompany the party to Kankakee as a representative of the national guard, and Judge D. G. Thompson will represent the attorney general's department. Klein will be escorted to the jail by soldiers and there formally turned over to the local civil authorities. As soon as this has been accomplished Judge Thompson will move for Klein's release on bail. Colonel Sanborn of the First Regiment having begun arrangements for this step on his arrival in Chicago.

Presumed to Be Innocent.

It is the determination of the authorities here that Klein shall be treated only as a member of the state forces who has been accused of a crime of which he is presumed to be innocent.

General Wells, who has been in command of the East section of the city, has been relieved of duty and General Young has assumed charge of that section. General Foster will retain command of the West section, with headquarters at the armory.

Fear and terror prevail in the homes of Springfield negroes. The departure of two regiments of infantry Wednesday and the announcement that two more organizations will be sent home caused consternation among the colored residents.

"The mob will be here sure if those soldiers go away," they said, and delegations were hastily organized and sent to the state, county and city officials to protest against a relaxation of the military regime. The efforts of the authorities to quiet this feeling were only partially successful and in many a humble home there was no sleep before dawn.

Every footfall or challenge of a sentry sent quivers of alarm among the anxious watchers.

Scores of the terror-stricken blacks sought refuge in the arsenal. Early in the evening almost twice as many applications for shelter had been received there as on previous nights and about 300 negroes curled up in the corners of the balcony sleeping on the floor or curled up in chairs.

The exodus of negroes, which had begun to abate, was renewed. Trains and trolley cars were used by those fortunate enough to possess a little money, but many of the unfortunates took to the road, tramping across the country in a drizzling rain until exhaustion forced them to seek rest in corn fields or in wood lots. The children and aged who were driven to the open, suffered severely and it is feared that many of them will succumb to the hardships.

Adjutant General Scott insists that there is no good ground for the fear of the negroes.

Tailors Will Strike.

New York, Aug. 20.—A general strike of the members of the United States Brotherhood of Tailors was ordered at a meeting of the general executive board of the brotherhood here

HAYES RETURNS HOME.

New York, Aug. 20.—"I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated us," said John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race at the Olympic games, upon his arrival here on the steamer Oceanic. Hayes' view of the treatment given the American team of athletes at the games in London was echoed by J. P. Halstead, the Cornell runner, who was also a passenger on the Oceanic. That there were grounds for complaint by Americans was admitted by both athletes, but neither believed that the team from this country was intentionally discriminated against by anybody connected with the conduct of the sports in the Stadium.

Hayes got a reception at the pier from a party of friends who had assembled to greet him. He was asked at once about the Marathon and in discussing the race he said:

"They thought before the race that the Englishmen were the only ones that had a chance and they naturally were a great deal disappointed when they did not win. Morrissey was the only American who was mentioned before the race as having any show at all. I don't know anything about the assisting of Dorando across the line. He was disqualified on the testimony of the judges. I, myself, did not have to make any protest."

Hayes did not care to say anything about the incidents connected with the awarding of the prizes, which have occasioned discussion.

VIEWS OF CASTRO.

Frankly Expressed by the President of Venezuela.

Caracas, Aug. 20.—"To create diplomatic agents for the purpose of humbling weak nations, is anomalous and counteractive," is President Castro's frank opinion of diplomatic relations as recently expressed in an interview. He surely has been consistent in waging a war on those who he thought were trying to humble him. Holland is the fourth power, which, during the past few years, has severed all friendly relations with Venezuela.

The American government has now gone even one step farther in completely suppressing the consular agency at Caracas, a very unexpected action, inasmuch as Caracas business houses have been greatly inconvenienced by being obliged now to dispatch their hides, coffee and cocoa through the consulate at La Guayra. Thus the capital of Venezuela, where there ought to be a consul general, is today entirely without consular representation. John Brewer, late consular agent, remains here as guardian of the archives of the closed legation. Alarmists take it for granted that this latest move from Washington is only one more indication of the coming of a more serious rupture.

AUTO HIT BY A TRAIN.

Wealthy Minneapolis Brewer and His Wife Killed.

Minneapolis, Aug. 20.—John Gluek, a wealthy Minneapolis brewer, and his wife were instantly killed at Cottage wood, Lake Minnetonka, in a collision between their automobile and a train on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway. Mr. Gluek and his party were en route to the city and at the railroad crossing near Cottage wood their automobile was caught on the track by the train and hurled against a small station at one side. Mr. Gluek was instantly killed and Mrs. Gluek was pinned down under the debris, which speedily took fire from the ignited gasoline from the automobile. She was dead when taken out. Mrs. Edward le Baire of New York city, sister of Mrs. Gluek, and her two-year-old daughter received serious injuries, which may prove fatal.

Two Girls Kidnapped.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 20.—Called to the door by an unknown man just before midnight, Gertrude Blehn, aged fourteen, and Dorothy Blehn, aged eleven, daughters of Jacob Blehn, one of the wealthiest farmers in Kenosha county, were forced into a closed carriage and kidnapped. No trace of them can be found and relatives of the girls can discover no motive for the kidnapping.

Editors Visit Minnesota Capitol.

St. Paul, Aug. 20.—Minnesota's marble state house was ablaze with electric lights in the evening, the occasion being the state reception to the National Editorial association. From 8:30 till 10:30 a continual throng of people kept going and coming. Governor Johnson and wife and other state officials and their wives welcomed the editors.

VERDICT OF THE CORONER'S JURY

Causes Demonstration in Courtroom at Flushing, L. I.

HAINS CHARGED WITH MURDER

Army Officer Accused of Having Killed William E. Annis and His Literary Brother Is Held for Aiding and Abetting Him in the Crime.

New York, Aug. 20.—After being out twenty-two minutes, a coroner's jury brought in a verdict that William E. Annis, who was killed last Saturday at Bayside, L. I., came to his death as the result of pistol shot wounds inflicted by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., aided and abetted by Thornton Jenkins Hains, his literary brother.

There was a greater crowd than the little courtroom in the town hall at Flushing, L. I., could hold when the inquest began and hundreds of men and women awaited the verdict outside.

When the jurymen filed into the room and the foreman announced the verdict there was a demonstration. Cononer Ambler had to rap with his gavel and court officers had to caution the spectators for an attempt was made to applaud the verdict. Major John Powell Hains, who has come here from Chicago to stand by his brothers, and who was sitting beside Captain Hains, gripped his brother by the arm and whispered words of encouragement, assuring him that the inquest would have little bearing on the case.

Crowd Questioned T. J. Hains.

In the excitement a crowd gathered around Thornton Jenkins Hains and began to question him as to the tragedy in which he played such an important part. He was asked if he felt justified in holding a crowd at bay with a revolver while his brother shot down Annis. Before Hains could reply, John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the brothers, rushed to his side and shouted: "No, no, don't answer that question." In his effort to prevent Hains from answering, the lawyer clapped his hands over his client's mouth and was probably just in time to prevent the prisoner from committing himself.

Only two witnesses were called.

They were Charles H. Robert of Flushing, who testified that he was standing on the clubhouse float when he heard the report of a pistol shot and saw Captain Hains in a kneeling position clinging to the drooping body of Annis, as he emptied the contents of his revolver into it, and Cononer's Physician Walter G. Frey, who testified that Annis came to his death from the bullet wounds. Dr. Frey said that there were nine initial wounds and twelve secondary wounds, which would indicate that Captain Hains fired nine shots.

In cross-examining Mr. Robert, Lawyer McIntyre asked him if Captain Hains had finished shooting when he tried to go to his aid and was stopped by Thornton Hains, who held a revolver in his face. The witness said that the shooting had not ceased and that he would have had time to interfere had not Thornton Hains prevented him.

That both Captain Hains and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, were suffering from some form of emotional insanity, will probably be the defense offered in their approaching trial.

Democratic Candidate Delivers an Address at a Picnic.

Milwaukee, Aug. 20.—John W. Kern, the Democratic candidate for vice president, accompanied by an Indianapolis delegation and Mayor Rose of this city, who met the party in Chicago, arrived in Milwaukee and was welcomed at the railway station by a number of prominent Democrats and a gathering of people who were anxious to see the vice presidential nominee. The occasion for Mr. Kern's visit was the picnic given at Wauwatosa park, under the auspices of the Associated Rose Clubs of Milwaukee, and where he delivered an address. The picnic was attended by thousands of Democrats from Milwaukee county and by visitors from the state at large.

Leaving the station Mr. Kern was driven to the Plankinton hotel, thence to the park, where addresses were made by A. J. Aylward and A. J. Schmidt, gubernatorial candidates for the nomination in the Democratic primaries.

THE POLITICAL POT

The political pot has commenced to simmer and while it is not expected to get to the boiling point for some time it will finally reach that stage even if the indications now are for a moderate campaign. Candidates who are to contest for nomination at the primary election are getting busy and several have already filed. Those who contemplate getting into the game will have to do so soon as August 26th is the last day that filings can be made for the primary election, and no names will be added to the ticket after that date. The law provides that the filings for the primaries shall be made 20 days before the primary election, the date of which is Tuesday, September 15th.

The cost of filing, according to the law governing that point, has been amended, and according to the attorney general the apparent meaning of the amended law is that candidates should pay $10 instead of $20. According to the decision office seekers must pay $10 each for filing for the primary which sum will also entitle the winners to have their names placed on the ballot for the general election without additional expense. Legislative candidates however will have to pay $20 as a filing fee.

The legislative candidates in this district now number five and all are from Morrison county, and it is expected that the contest for two house positions will be confined entirely to Morrison county gentlemen. I. W. Bouck and Milo N. Young, the present members of the legislature, are candidates before the people for renomination, the latter gentleman having served one term and the former three. The contest to displace the present members is a friendly one and it has not been charged that their records are unsatisfactory, but with the advent of the three other candidates, E. A. Kling, C. W. Bouck and L. D. Brown, the outcome is uncertain and the lines have not yet been so closely drawn as to allow of picking the winners with any degree of certainty.

There will be no contest in the district for member of congress and the name of C. A. Lindbergh, the present congressman, will be the only one on the primary ballot for the republican nomination, and from present indications there will be no democratic candidate pitted against him at the election. This eliminates a strenuous feature from the campaign, for in years gone by the district has looked forward to a struggle for the republican nomination for this office and there never has been a time when the successful candidate did not have to fight for the election. The condition of affairs in this respect must be a source of satisfaction to Congressman Lindbergh who is just completing his first term as the representative in congress of one of the most prominent congressional districts in the northwest and one that has heretofore been the scene of the hardest fought battles for political supremacy of any in the state.

It is generally conceded that there will be no contests at the primary election on county offices for the nomination of auditor, treasurer, register of deeds and judge of probate. Auditor Smart is just completing his first term and he has given the office his closest personal attention which together with the general satisfaction that exists in regard to the conduct of probably the most important office in the county seems to have eliminated the desire that may have existed in the minds of any of those who may have looked with longing eyes on the position. Treasurer Adair, Judge Sanborn and Register Trommald will have no opposition at the primaries, and undoubtedly none at the general election. The people seem to feel, if the general sentiment expressed is any criterion, that a good official is worth keeping, and while a life tenure is not expected it is the best policy to retain a worthy public official and it can be said in this connection without fear of contradiction that it would be hard to replace them with better men for the positions. The office of clerk of the court is not elective this year, it being a four year office and W. A. M. Johnston was elected two years ago.

For county attorney there will be a three cornered fight for the nomination, W. A. Fleming, W. W. Bane and J. H. Warner, the present incumbent, will come before the people asking their endorsement.

Superintendent J. A. Wilson, who has had charge of the schools in this county for several years, will have opposition at the primaries in the person of A. J. Kneiff, of Bay Lake. James A. Sornson, of Merrifield, is a candidate for the republican nomination of sheriff, and it is understood, although not authoritatively, that F. J. Reid, of St. Mathias, will contest the honors with him. Mr. Reid is at present one of the county commissioners and in case he makes up his mind to make the contest it will add additional life to the political scrap to be waged. Other gentlemen have been mentioned in this connection including the former superintendent of the county farm, Geo. S. McCulloch, but so far Mr. Sornson has been the only one to file. Ole Erickson, who has been sheriff of the county for some time, will again come up for election but he will not have to be figured with at the primary election, and whoever gets the republican nomination this year will have an advantage not offered in off years to land the place.

The gentlemen who have filed with the auditor up to date are: County Attorney, republican—W. W. Bane, W. A. Fleming, J. H. Warner. County Superintendent, republican—J. A. Wilson, Arthur J. Kneiff. Sheriff, republican—James A. Sornson.

County Commissioner, First District, republican—P. J. Albertson; democratic—Frank Kienow. County Commissioner, Fifth District, republican—G. F. Edquist.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Causing Enormous Damage to Timber on Vancouver Island.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 20.—Fierce forest fires causing damage to timber likely to total millions of dollars are reported from several sections of Vancouver island and a wireless telegram from Point Grey says a large forest fire is raging on the east side of Bowen island.

Nanaimo, a coal mining city of 8,000 people, is threatened by fires in the immediate vicinity of the city which have kept the fire brigade constantly at work since Tuesday night and a dangerous blaze took place in a large section of brush in the city which was not extinguished until the fire department and a large force of volunteers had worked for several hours. Two tramps are alleged to have started this blaze. The city was saved only by a fortunate shift of wind.

JOHNSON AGAIN NAMED.

Nominated for Governor by Minnesota Democrats.

Minneapolis, Aug. 20.—Governor John A. Johnson was renominated by acclamation by the Democratic state convention following a demonstration lasting about an hour. The ovation was started when Mayor Lawler of St. Paul placed the governor in nomination.

The remainder of the ticket is as follows:

Lieutenant governor, Julius J. Reiter, Rochester; attorney general, M. E. Matthews, Marshall; treasurer, Henry P. Nelsen, Hibbing; secretary of state, R. T. Lamb, Slayton; railroad and warehouse commissioners, Hans P. Bjorge, Otter Tail county, and Robert Mee, Rice county.

Ruef Held for Trial.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—After a preliminary examination, the longest in the history of the local police court, which consumed sixty-seven days, Abraham Ruef, former political boss in this city, was held by Judge Cabbiss for trial in the superior court upon a charge of bribing former Supervisor J. J. Fuery to vote for an electric street railway franchise.

Heavy Sea Spills Boats.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—A heavy sea, which caused the judges to lose the buoys, cost the Columbia of the Columbia Yacht club the Lipton cup in the final race. The third buoy was cast adrift by the heavy waves, and before the judges could mark the corner of the square the Columbia and Jackson Park, who were leading, had passed two miles out of their course. The trial was immediately called no race by the judges and the final race will be sailed over the same course.

AT THE FALLS
Steel Interests Said to Have Acquired International Falls
Water Power

WORK WILL COMMENCE SOON
Paper and Pulp Mill on American
Side---Huge Flouring Mills

The Minneapolis Tribune contains the following regarding the water-power at International Falls:

"The Backus-Brooks interests at International Falls have sold their water power holdings at 'the fall' to Eastern capital, and it is understood that the development hereafter will be by capital furnished by the steel interests.

"W. H. Cook, president of the Duluth, Rainy Lake and Winnipeg road, has sent word to the Minneapolis lumber interests to the effect that work would begin at once by the use of 600 men, looking to the completion of works that would produce 30,000-horsepower within a year. This, it is understood, will be followed by the quick completion of some new railroad lines in that district.

"It is understood by those who have followed matters in that locality that the Backus-Brooks company will concentrate its efforts upon the completion of a mammoth paper and pulp plant on the American side at International Falls. Pulp wood is plenty in that locality and the mill is to be finished by the time the power is ready to be delivered. The plant will have a capacity of 500 tons of paper a day.

"The advices also claim that to offset the huge paper mill on this side the Ogilvie Milling company, of Winnipeg, is to build a flour mill with a capacity of 20,000 barrels a day at Fort Frances on the Canadian side of Rainy river. Elevators will be built and wheat ground in transit. All these developments are some of the things that led the Minneapolis real estate board to take its trip to the Rainy lake country in order to investigate the situation and see what could be done toward making that market tributary to Minneapolis."

Five Strong Reasons
Why painting in the fall is best

1. In the fall, the surface is thoroughly dry. During the spring a surface which needs repainting is sure to contain moisture and dampness or frost, and it cannot be successfully painted until it has thoroughly dried out.
2. When the wood is dry, it absorbs more of the paint; the paint penetrates deeper into the wood, therefore gets a firmer hold on it, giving the paint coating greater tenacity for holding qualities.
3. Paint cannot be as successfully applied in damp, cloudy or unsettled weather as in warm, sunny weather. In the fall the weather is more settled and uniform and is warmer, therefore it is an excellent time for painting.
4. A house needs its protective coat of paint more in the winter months than at any other time. A house in need of painting should never be allowed to go over the winter without this protection.
5. It is easier to keep the winter's moisture and dampness out by applying a coat of paint in the fall, when the surface is dry, than it is to get moisture or dampness out of the wood if you want to apply a coat of paint in the spring.

WAS SEEN TOO SOON
Fire at Henry Atkinson's Place on
East Main Street Discovered
Just in Time

A fire which might easily have consumed the residence of Henry Atkinson, at 1011 Main street, was discovered by the neighbors just in time to save the building. The children in the Shay family, living in the house next east of Atkinson, came to the residence of I. U. White, who lives in the next house west, about 7 o'clock last night, and reported smoke coming up through the roof. An alarm was immediately turned in to the fire department and I. U. and Dean White grabbed pails of water and an ax and rushed over to the Atkinson house.

No one was at home when they reached there and the house was unlocked. It was full of smoke and hard to locate the fire. A search in the rooms both on the ground floor and in the chamber revealed none. Dean, however, discovered the smoke coming up through the stairs and chopped into the partition at the side of the stairway and found fire. He called to his father to look for a closet under the stairs. I. U. found one. The door was closed and on the floor in front of it was a large lamp which had apparently fallen off from a stand. Mr. White stooped and picked up the lamp and the chimney, which lay beside it, and found both of them perfectly cold. He opened the closet door and found the walls afire. The flames had apparently originated in a little waste paper which lay on the floor. Mr. White dashed a couple of pails of water on the fire and extinguished it just as the fire department dashed up.

There was $300 insurance on the property in the Smith Bros. agency.

CUYUNA RANGE

Iowa Capitalists Have Organized

Kipp Mining Company Has Been Organized to Work Deposits
in Todd County

That interest and belief in the Cuyuna range is constantly increasing and broadening is shown by the incorporation of two new corporations recently organized for the purpose of developing iron ore deposits and mining it.

One of the companies organized is the Cuyuna Mining Company, of Aitkin, of which W. E. Dean, Jr., of Aitkin, and H. S. Raymer, R. A. Moses, E. D. Dickey, Geo. H. Boysen and P. W. Tourtelot, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, are members and S. K. Stevenson, Iowa City, Iowa. The capital stock is $100,000 and the business as set forth in the articles of incorporation, is the "mining, smelting, reducing, refining and working of iron ores, copper and other manufacturing of iron, steel, copper and other metals and minerals, and the exploring, drilling, buying, selling, leasing, holding, owning, mortgaging or otherwise encumbering and dealing in lands, tenements, and real and personal property of every other nature or descriptions."

The other is the Kipp Mining company, and is organized to develop ore finds in Todd county as set forth by the following sent from Staples to the Duluth Herald:

"Considerable excitement prevails in the country directly southeast of Staples, on account of the large bodies of iron ore which have been discovered. From good authority it is believed that a great quantity of ore exists throughout that section of Todd county, and a company has been incorporated, known as the Kipp Mining company, and will soon be on the ground for operation.

"Besides purchasing several tracts of land, and options on a great deal more, they have purchased the old mill site on the Long Prairie river, which will be utilized for furnishing power and light for the mines."

ALL CENTERING HERE
Brainerd Seems to be Meeting Point for Railroad Officials and Special Cars

This city has seemed to be the Mecca of special trains and private cars the last 48 hours. Night before last a special train of Minneapolis business men went through to International Falls. Last night President Elliott, of the Northern Pacific, Mr. Gemmell and other officials went up in the Yellowstone, while the Great Northern S10, Mr. Sheppard's private car with a party went to the falls. Mr. Moir, mechanical superintendent, came in from St. Paul this morning and Supt. Blanchard from Duluth and Assistant General Superintendent Slade from St. Paul at noon. The significance of the gathering, if any, is closely guarded. The only reason given out is that they are looking over the car situation. The impression, however, is that they are looking over that, way over it to some other matter.

The state fish car Glenwood, also came up today with the entire fish and game commission and Carlos Avery, executive agent and S. F. Fullerton, superintendent of fisheries. They are enroute to International Falls with a large amount of bass and trout fry, which are being distributed all the way from Anoka to International Falls. Brainerd gets ten cans of brook trout, consigned to John Cochran, for planting in Pillager creek, Hubert 20 cans of bass, Nisswa 20 cans of bass and five of steel head trout. Altogether 200 cans were distributed on this trip.

CEPTS NOMINATION

SPECIAL TO THE DISPATCH:
St. Paul, Aug. 20.—Shortly after noon today, Gov. Johnson called the newspaper men into his private office and announced that he had accepted the nomination of the state democratic convention at Minneapolis yesterday. He said:

"I have given the matter the closest thought for the past twenty-four hours and my first opinion that a third nomination is unwise and against the principles of the party, is unchanged, yet I can hardly see how I can get away from making the race without putting the party in a hole. I regret this action and wish it never had happened."

FLEET AT SYDNEY.

American Warships Arrive at New South Wales Port.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 20.—A thin veil of smoke on the horizon signalled to the watchers on the coast the approach of the American warships and official notification was sent out that the fleet had been sighted. It was yet twenty miles outside of Sydney harbor, but this world, which had been awaited eagerly by tens of thousands, stirred Australians like a call to arms and almost instantly those who had not left the city to take up points of vantage along the bay shore moved in droves to line the quays, roof tops and other places on the harbor front, to watch the coming of the guardships from the new world. The day broke bright and clear and so intense was the interest in the American ships of war that half the populace remained awake the entire night and thousands upon thousands of them long before the night was over were on their way to the hill to pass outside the city limits, where they congregated seemingly in unbroken lines along the coast from Bondi beach to Manly.

It is estimated that hardly less than 500,000 people assembled to give the visitors a royal welcome. Sydney harbor with its innumerable bays and coves, never looked more beautiful, nor did the American sailors ever witness a more inspiring sight than that which met their eyes as the white ships came through the channel, past the great headlands into Port Jackson.

A hundred thousand people, the greatest assemblage of all gathered on the South heads, where a magnificent view of the whole scene was to be had. Hundreds of craft of all kinds moved up and down even at the early hour, all the waters with the exception of the fairway and anchorages being dotted with little and big vessels decorated in every conceivable manner with flags and bunting.

What Makes a Woman Look Old? WRINKLES! The Arch Enemies of Beauty

When wrinkles come—animation, expression and beauty go. We say: "How old and wrinkled she looks!"

A woman may have a wealth of luxuriant hair, a complexion like a lily and the profile of a Grecian goddess and yet be made conspicuously unattractive by the blight of beauty—wrinkles.

Beauty is in the animation of the features; the bright expression of penetration in the eyes; the clear-cut lines of the "inviting" mouth—and in that indefinable "something" that bids for the envy of women and the admiration of men.

Wouldn't she be beautiful if it wasn't for the wrinkles?

The above likeness is from a photo, taken last October, of a well-known Chicago lady, who resides at Hotel Wychmere, Eighteenth and Indiana Av., that city. Since then she has taken a course treatment and is now

One of the Most Beautiful Women in Chicago

If you will call at

H. P. DUNN,

where these goods are on sale, you will receive a booklet, entitled

"HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL"

Showing, on the front cover, a likeness of this superb beauty. Inside the booklet you will find her name and a signed, personal letter in praise of the Burnham requisites. By description and diagram, the booklet clearly shows how this wonderful change was accomplished.

Wrinkles Can Be Entirely Eradicated

E. Burnham's Skin Tightener
Begins the removal of wrinkles by giving the skin new tone and vigor, causing it to contract—the sagging eyelids gradually resume their youthful condition—the furrows on the brow disappear and the hard lines around the mouth grow dim and vanish.

E. Burnham's Skin Food
Completes the removal of wrinkles by strengthening and building up the wasted tissues—stimulates the circulation of red blood through every capillary—rounds out the sunken temples and hollow cheeks—makes permanent the good effects of massage.

E. Burnham's Cucumber Cream
Should be used with this treatment to make the skin clean and elastic, so that the other two preparations can more effectively do their work. The Cream penetrates and dissolves the greasy impurities that have clogged the pores. This allows the Skin Food to pass through them and ACT ON THE TISSUES BENEATH.

Occurs When Mayor Lawler of St. Paul Places the Governor's Name Before the Convention in Minneapolis.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
Governor—John A. Johnson, St. Peter
Lieutenant Governor—Julius J. Reiter, Rochester.
Attorney General—M. E. Matthews, Marshall.
Treasurer—Henry P. Nelsen, Hibbing.
Secretary of State—R. T. Lamb, Slayton.
Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners—Hans P. Borge, Otter Tail county, and Robert Mee, Rice county.

Never in the history of Minnesota has anyone received an ovation equaling that tendered Governor Johnson by the Democratic state convention.

Following the presentation of his name for selection as the party's standard bearer in the state campaign by Mayor Lawler of St. Paul, the delegates marched around the hall cheering and shouting for more than an hour. The record-breaking demonstration showed very clearly that the Democrats of the state will have no other candidate for governor. Mayor Lawler, in his nominating speech, was at his best, and his eloquent praise of the governor was interrupted time and again with wild outbursts of cheering. When he said that the Democrats of the state would have no other candidate, the mighty demonstration started, and for an hour and five minutes the cheering was continuous.

No Other Name Presented.

No other name was considered by the convention.

When the demonstration had been in progress for an hour and five minutes, Frank A. Day telephoned Governor Johnson at the state capitol, and informed him of what the convention was doing. At that time the delegates were still marching around the hall behind a huge banner on which was a picture of Johnson, and the cheering was vociferous. The governor, replying to his secretary, said he was deeply touched by the tribute of affection to him, but added that his determination to keep out of the race was unshaken.

His refusal to accept the nomination had no effect on the convention, however.

The governor would not give out for publication what he would do in the matter, but the fact that he wanted to "think it over" in the face of his previous declarations that he would not accept the nomination indicates that his attitude has changed somewhat and the general opinion is that he will respond to the call made upon him by the party.

His private secretary, Frank A. Day, came out boldly and says he does not see how Johnson could continue to live in the state if he turned down the nomination.

The convention was called to order by State Chairman Frank A. Day. After the delegates had listened to a phonographic speech of William J. Bryan State Chairman Day began his opening address. He said if the wish of Governor Johnson was respected that there were a dozen Democrats in Minnesota who could carry the party to victory.

At the conclusion of Mr. Day's remarks State Senator Ray G. Farrington of Ortonville was made temporary chairman. In his keynote speech he said that the Republican national house and senate at all times afforded unequal rights and privileges to a few and that the reason for the popularity of Roosevelt is because he has seized upon Democratic principles. He said that the Jacobson platform was like that of Taft, in that it stood upon a foundation of sand, and the only clear thing in it was the placing of the responsibility of an extravagant Republican legislature upon a Democratic governor. The convention then took a recess for ten minutes to select committees on credentials and permanent organization.

Committee Named to Fill Ticket.

Later it was decided to have a committee formed of one delegate from each judicial district to make recommendations for filling the places on the ticket other than governor. That this could be done a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

As a committee to name a slate the following delegates were selected:

Albert Schaller, R. T. O'Connor, John Costello, L. A. Stockwell, C. F. Kelly, C. O. Daly, J. J. Daly, J. E. Casey, D. H. Evans, H. G. Day, John Dwan, L. B. Nelson, C. H. Dart, O. J. Johnson, F. A. Day, P. O. Hair, Julius Dorsey and A. G. Rutledge.

The demonstration for Johnson was brought about when the convention voted to receive nominations for governor by roll call of the county. R. T. O'Connor had seen which way the wind was blowing and had fixed things so that Ramsey county could get the glory of starting the band wagon move for Johnson. Things had been framed up to give Hennepin county this honor and A. B. Choate was to make the nominating speech, but when the roll call of the counties was started, Altkin, first on the list, announced through its chairman, that it had no candidate to offer but would defer to Ramsey county.

A buzz of excitement went around the hall, followed by tense suspense as Mayor D. W. Lawler of St. Paul arose from his place in the Ramsey delegation and ascended the steps to the stage. The moment was fraught with the keenest expectation. It was the crisis of the convention.

A nervous thrill ran through the vast hall as Mayor Lawler faced the delegates and in a deep, sonorous voice that reached every part of the hall and filled the auditorium with its volume of tone, said:

Lawler Started Demonstration.

"He would be a hard speaker, indeed, who would waste much time in placing before this convention the name of the next governor of Minnesota because there is but one name in the minds, in the hearts and in the mouths of the Democracy of the state of Minnesota, and that name is John A. Johnson."

That was as far as Mayor Lawler got with his nomination speech for more than an hour.

P. McDonnell of Duluth, chairman of the St. Louis county delegation, led, at that psychological moment, one of the wildest band wagon movements ever witnessed in a state convention in the Northwest. Jumping to his feet he grabbed the banner of St. Louis county and waving it above his head he shouted:

"Hurrah for Johnson! He's a winner!" and started on a run for the stage. He was followed by every delegate in the hall, shouting: "Johnson! Johnson! He's a winner."

For more than an hour pandemonium reigned and when quiet had been again restored, with practically every delegate too hoarse to talk much, Mayor Lawler resumed his speech in nomination of Governor Johnson. He made it short.

"There is no name worthy to be mentioned alongside that of Bryan," Mr. Lawler continued, "except that of Johnson. We are here today representing the militant Democracy in Minnesota. Let every Democrat in Minnesota nail to the masthead the name of John A. Johnson, demand his acceptance of the nomination and triumphantly elect him this fall along with the entire Democratic ticket."

The roll call of the counties was then resumed and Anoka county deferred to Hennepin. A. B. Choate was then called to the platform and delivered as a Johnson seconding speech, part of the address he had prepared for the nomination of Johnson.

Should Not Be Discouraged.

In conclusion he advised the Democrats not to be discouraged with Johnson and Bryan as their standard-bearers this fall.

The roll call had proceeded as far as Becker county, when the expected happened, and to J. T. Tompkins of Fairfax, a ditching contractor of that village, befell the honor of actually nominating Governor Johnson for a third term campaign.

Arising in his place in the Renville county delegation, as the roll of the counties was starting again, Mr. Tompkins said:

"What's the use of wasting all this time calling the roll of counties? We know who we want. If it can be done, let's nominate Johnson now, by acclamation."

That's all there was to it. Mr. Tompkins was prevailed upon by Chairman Farrington to offer the suggestion in the form of a motion, and it was carried with a shout.

Chairman Day of the committee on nominations reported the slate candidates for minor places as given above and it was ratified without question.

The convention was rapped to order at 2:30 for the afternoon session, and immediately upon quiet having been secured Ramsey county moved that Judge J. T. Corrigan of Minneapolis be called on to address the convention. Judge Corrigan acceded to the request and delivered a brief address eulogistic of Bryan and Johnson.

W. R. Hodges of Sleepy Eye reported for the credentials committee, seating all delegates as reported by the counties, there being no contests.

Chairman Austin of the committee on organization reported, recommending that the temporary organization be made permanent, and the report was approved.

While the convention was waiting for the committee on resolutions May or D. W. Lawler of St. Paul was called for from every section of the hall, and spoke briefly from the floor in his place with the Ramsey delegation.

The convention adopted the platform prepared by the resolutions committee and then adjourned. The platform is as follows:

The Democracy of Minnesota, in convention assembled, improves this first opportunity since the national convention to approve the work of that body, indorse the platform there adopted, and pledge its hearty support to the ticket there nominated. In W. J. Bryan the world today recognizes one of the truest patriots and ablest statesmen of modern times, and nowhere are his qualities more highly appreciated by the people than in Minnesota. We believe that the election of Bryan and Kern would bring the government of this republic close to its true and original source—the people.

We hereby indorse the administration of Governor John A. Johnson. In every emergency he has been equal to the occasion, and has brought honor to the administration and to the state. His administration had but one guide, the law, and all interests have been compelled to respect it.

Johnson's Administration Indorsed.

We indorse the wisdom of Governor Johnson and the state board appointed by him in inaugurating at the state prison a plan for the manufacture of harvesting machinery and in largely extending the capacity and facilities of the binding twine plant already established. We congratulate the farmers of Minnesota that the state is prepared to produce next season 4,000,000 pounds over and above the 14,000,000 pounds of binding twine manufactured this year, and that mowers and harvesters made by the state are in successful operation; and we pledge our continued efforts along this line until the agricultural producers of Minnesota are permanently free from the grasp of the harvester and binding twine trusts. In this connection we call attention to the ominous silence of the Republican platform on this important question.

We would call the attention of the voters of this state to the fact that there will be pending before them at the next election an amendment to the constitution dealing with the subject of taxation; that this amendment will open the way for the passage of a tonnage tax on iron ore, and that the steel trust is at this time trying to have declared invalid a similar amendment voted upon and carried at the last election. We recommend the adoption of such amendment, to the end that these interests may be required to bear their just share of public burdens.

Recognizing the initiative and referendum as a most efficient means by which the citizenship of this state may beneficially control legislation and strengthen and perpetuate democratic government, we pledge the Democratic administration of Minnesota and the Democratic members of the senate and house of representatives to the support of the measure before the last legislature known as Senate File No. 78, the Fitzpatrick bill, or of some measure equally as effective, and we appeal to all citizens of Minnesota, regardless of party to see that this most important measure be enacted into law at the coming session.

Election of Senator by Popular Vote.

We demand that our state executive and our state legislature as well as the United States senators and representatives from Minnesota use their utmost endeavors to bring about a change in the Constitution of the United States, securing the election of the United States senators directly by the voters at large in each state. Until that amendment can be secured, we demand such a modification of the primary laws of the state of Minnesota as will give the voters of Minnesota an opportunity to express, by their votes, a preference as to the man who shall represent the state of Minnesota in the United States senate.

Believing as we do in the principle of the direct primary, we demand that the direct primary law of the state be strengthened and extended so as to include nominations for all state offices.

We congratulate the people of the state that the demand of the Democratic party made two years ago for lower freight and passenger rates and the abolition of free passes has been recognized by the enactment of laws designed to secure those ends.

We commend the present administration for its efforts to enforce those laws and pledge a continuance of those efforts until full compliance therewith has been secured.

We reiterate our demand that the rules of the common law exempting the employer from liability to his employee for accidental injuries sustained through the negligence of fellow servants and also the common law doctrine as to the assumption of risk by the employee be abolished.

Believing the position taken by some of our bankers that the people collectively, under county and state government, are entitled to security for their bank deposits, but that the individual, whose need for security is far greater, is not so entitled is inconsistent and absurd; therefore, resolved, that we favor the state guarantee for deposits in state banks.

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgment are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood, thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.
